Lisbon, May 29. N. S.

THe Levies for the 5 Regiments of Foot, and 25 Troops of Horſe, for which the King of Portugal has lately given out Commiſſions, go on with good Succeſs; and they continue likewiſe to fit out ſeveral Men of War here and at Oporto. The Preſident Rouille, Ambaſſador from France, had Audience of the King and Queen the 25th inſtant; and Complimented them on the Prince their ſecond Son's entring into the 7th year of his Age: And on this occaſion they likewiſe received the Compliments of the other Foreign Miniſter's reſiding here.

Meſſina, June 6. The Muſcovite General Szeremet is lately come hither from Maltha, where he was very well received by the Great Maſter of that Order, who preſented him with a Golden-Croſs ſet with Diamonds, to the value of about 6000 Crowns, and ſent two Gallies to Convoy him as far as Cape Paſſaro. We hear, the Gallies of Maltha are Cruiſing on the Coaſt of Barbary.

Rome, June 14. The Marquis of Leganez, late Governor of Milan, arrived here yeſterday, and is Lodged at the Houſe of the Spaniſh Ambaſſador. He deſigns in a few days to go to Terracina, where he is to meet the Duke of Medina Celi, Viceroy of Naples. The Congregation of Cardinals, which the Pope appointed ſome time ago to Examine the Archbiſhop of Cambray's Book, have had ſeveral Meetings about it, but are come as yet to no Reſolution thereupon. The Prince of Heſſe Darmſtadt, who has continued ſome time in this City, is on his departure for Vienna. The Pope has given Orders, That his Gallies ſhould ſail forthwith for the Levant, to joyn the Venetian Fleet.

Genoua, June 14. Signior Giovanni Anthonio Juſtiniani, who is appointed Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick to His Majeſty of Great Britain, and Signior Agoſtino Centurione, who goes with the like Character to France, having received their Inſtructions, left this place laſt Thurſday to repair to their reſpective Stations.

Venice, June 20. The Diſcourſe of a Peace with the Turks continues; The Senate have ſent Powers to their Ambaſſador at Vienna to Treat about it. The Convoy for the Levant is ready to Sail under the Command of Signior Franciſco Moro, who is appointed Governor of Napoli di Malvaſia. We have Advice from Tunis, That 4 of the Men of War belonging to that Government failed thence on the 16th paſt to joyn the Ottoman Fleet. Our Advices from Dalmatia ſay, The Venetian Forces in thoſe Parts have lately had ſeveral ſucceſsful Rencounters with the Turks.

Warſaw, June 20. The Baron of Hoverbeck being lately arrived here as Envoy from the Elector of Brandenburg, has had a private Audience of the King of Poland: He comes to renew the Antient Alliance between the Crown of Poland and the Elector of Brandenburg. Prince Sapieha, Great Marſhal of Lithuania, arrived here yeſterday, being accompanied by a great number of the Gentlemen of that Dutchy, and is to wait upon the King this Evening. The Sieur Oginsky is likewiſe ſhortly expected, with ſome of the Chief of his Party, ſo that it is hoped, an end will be put to the Differences which have of late given ſo much diſturbance to that Country. The Envoy of Moldavia is to have his Audience next week. The Queen-Dowager having obtained leave to go for two years to Rome, intends in a ſhort time to begin her Journey thither. The King's Forces continue their march to Ruſland, and Commiſſioners are ſent to take care, that the Magazines on thoſe Frontiers be ſufficiently provided with all things neceſſary for their Subſiſtence. Our Letters from Lemberg ſay, The Tartars, who brought the laſt Convoy of Proviſions to Cambieck, continue on that Frontier, where they commit great Ravages, and that one of their Parties having lately made an Excurſion in thoſe Parts, in which they got a conſiderable Booty, were in their Retreat fallen upon by ſome of our Troops, who killed divers of them, and put the reſt to flight.

Vienna, June 18. The Prince of Lorraine, Biſhop of Oſnabrug and Olmutz, went hence the laſt week to Olmutz, intending after a few days ſtay at that place to purſue his Journey to Oſnabrug. About Two thouſand four hundred men of the Troops of Wirtemberg, who ſerved in the Dutchy of Milan, are arrived in Auſtria, and will be forthwith ſent to Hungary, to Recruit the Emperor's Forces. The Daniſh and Saxon Forces in Hungary are now marching to Poland, to joyn the reſt of the German Forces in that King's Service. We have Advice from Prague, That the Czar arrived there the 16th inſtant in his way hither. Our Letters from Peter Waradin bring an Account, That the Baſſa of Romelia, and the Baſſa of the Arnoutes, are come to Belgrade with between 7 and 8000 men, under their Command; That the Grand Signior is expected there in the beginning of July with the reſt of the Army; And that the Veſſels which the Turks deſign to make uſe
